25X1

1. [REDACTED] LIAISON Mike Finley, on the staff of the Subcommittee on International Political and Military Affairs, House International Relations Committee, called requesting a copy of an unclassified Agency report entitled "Communist Aid to Less Developed Countries of the Free World, 1975" and asked to get on the list to be notified of unclassified Agency publications. I forwarded him a copy of the document he requested together with a note referring him to the DOCEX Project of the Library of Congress.

2. [REDACTED] LIAISON I met with Marian Czarnecki, Chief of Staff, House International Relations Committee, and delivered to him the document containing the conclusions with respect to the Italian Communist Party and explained to him that Representative Charles Whalen, Jr. (R., Ohio) had requested, through Tom Popovich, on the Minority staff of the Committee, to see the document. I also discussed the request from Cliff Hackett, on the Committee staff, for a briefing of Representatives Stephen J. Solarz (D., N. Y.) and Michael Harrington (D., Mass.). Czarnecki's comment was that if the request was being made in a committee or subcommittee capacity that the request should be channeled through Chairman of the Committee, Representative Thomas E. Morgan (D., Pa.), and suggested that I relay this to Hackett.

3. [REDACTED] LIAISON I called Tom Popovich, Minority staff, House International Relations Committee, and told him that I had delivered the document he requested to Marian Czarnecki, Chief of Staff of the Committee, and that Representative Charles Whalen, Jr. (R., Ohio) could read it whenever he got the time.

4. [REDACTED] LIAISON I called Cliff Hackett, House International Relations Committee staff, and explained to him my discussion with Marian Czarnecki, Chief of Staff of the Committee, and told him there was considerable background which he probably was not aware of in this matter. I told him that if Representatives Stephen J. Solarz (D., N. Y.) and Michael Harrington (D., Mass.) wanted a briefing in their capacity as a Member of Congress rather than as a member of a committee or subcommittee that they should call us directly to set up such a briefing. Although Hackett was not entirely satisfied, he said he would relay the message to Representatives Solarz and Harrington.

TO: Mr. Michael R. Finley
Subcommittee on International Political and Military Affairs
House International Relations Committee

Dear Mike:

Enclosed is the document you requested on 9 September. With respect to your request to get on a "list" for unclassified Agency publications, the Agency participates in the Document Expediting (DOCEX) Project of the Library of Congress, from whom you can get a list of unclassified Agency publications, and copies of those publications which you would like to see. I don't believe there is a charge where Members of Congress or committees request these documents. The Agency does not maintain a mailing list for people interested in Agency documents due to the number of people who would want to be on such a list and the administrative difficulties that would be involved.
